

SEEK TO OUST OIL COMPANIES JAPAN CONTINUES MANCHURIA MARCH

ADDITIONAL JAP TROOPS SENT INTO MANCHURIAN AREA

ALLEGED RUSSIAN TROOPS AND ARMS HAVE BEEN SENT TO AID CHINA

PARIS, Nov. 12.—(P)—Aristide Briand, president of the League of Nations council, telegraphed the League at Geneva this evening, asking the secretary to meet the Chinese and Japanese governments that he expected to arrive in Geneva tomorrow. He said that the Japanese had been ordered to send from any new aggressions.

GENEVA, Nov. 12.—(P)—China informed the League of Nations today that the Japanese command in Manchuria had ordered General Ma Chang-Shan to evacuate the city of Tsitsihar and that General Ma still held the city. A Japanese detachment of fifty soldiers armed with machine guns seized the Fuchow coal mine and colliery operated by the Northeast Mining corporation near Dairen. Dr. Alfred Sze, Chinese representative on the league council, reported.

He requested that the council ask the Japanese government to restore this property which, he said, the Japanese have coveted for a long time.

TOKYO, Nov. 12.—(P)—Reports of 15 carloads of Russian arms and ammunition have arrived at Anganchi, Manchuria, for the Chinese General Ma Chan-Shan and that a new Chinese attack from Chinchow in the direction of Mukden is threatened. Tokyo today as the government planned to dispatch a large fresh body of troops Saturday.

A report also was received from Geneva saying the League of Nations might propose an international police patrol in Manchuria to permit Japanese evacuation but this was not taken seriously by authorities here.

The report of the alleged shipment of Russian arms came from the war office intelligence department which said it had "fairly reliable evidence" from various sources that the shipment arrived over the Chinese Eastern Railway.

The intelligence bureau also said it had further information that 2,000 troops of an "international communist army" consisting of Russians, Koreans and Chinese had arrived at Tsitsihar, just north of General Ma's position at Anganchi.

The Russians apparently are planning something, a war office said. It added that the arms and ammunition arrived at Anganchi between November 6 and 12.

Meanwhile, newspaper reports from Mukden said 50 Chinese were killed and 300 wounded in a three-hour battle last night near Kung-chuling some distance to the north of Mukden and that among them was a Chinese woman in uniform who died later in a hospital.

The new Chinese attack expected in the direction of Mukden is looked for simultaneously with a renewed drive of the army of General Ma Chan-Shan in the Nonn bridge area. General Ma's army is said here to number 30,000 men. No definite statement of the exact strength of the new force of Japanese troops is to be sent from Hiroaki Saturday was given, but it was understood that more than a brigade would go and would bring the total number of

RACKETEERS PREYING UPON UNEMPLOYED IN BIG CITIES REPORTED TO BE INCREASING

NEW YORK, Nov. 12.—(P)—It isn't only finding a job which is an important matter of keeping out of numerous traps set by conscienceless racketeers.

Imagine a man without a job, a family to feed, winter coming on, his shoes worn from disuse, pointing tramp, employment agency to employment agency.

There appears an attractive advertisement. Men wanted in his line immediately. He rushes to fill out the application. An impressive-looking individual tells him he has been selected as one of the few for the jobs.

But—There's the matter of a bond. The company wants its employees to have an interest in the firm. So instead of the usual surety bond there is a more attractive plan by which the employee buys a share of stock, for maybe $100 or maybe $500 in a year, the whole thing back with interest,

Dual Role Barrel Presents Problem For Health Nurse

ASHLAND, Wis., Nov. 12.—(P)—County board members of Ashland county today pondered over a note from a farmer submitted to them by the county nurse on her annual report calling for greater health education in rural schools. It read:

"Dear Madam:
I can't give my children a bath until the sauerkraut barrel is empty."

BELIEVE TIENTSIN SITUATION WILL BE SETTLED AMICABLY

U. S. TROOPS PATROLLED
AREA; SINO-JAP AGREE-MENT NEAR THERE

TIENTSIN, Nov. 12.—(P)—More trouble and possibly serious fighting is expected tonight because an arrangement by which the Japanese agreed to permit a search of the neutral zone bordering their concession by Chinese police has broken down.

The Chinese were to search the area for rebels who participated in rioting early in the week, but when 100 police entered the neutral zone they were turned back by a Japanese patrol which charged that the Chinese had tried to extend their operations into the Japanese concession.

Now each side is accusing the other of having broken the agreement.

TIENTSIN, China, Nov. 12.—(P)—An understanding which it was hoped would ease the tense situation here between Japanese and Chinese was reached today, it was learned from an authoritative source.

Details of the understanding, which was expected to enable the situation to be cleared up within 24 hours, were not available.

United States troops patrolled the vicinity of the American barracks today and last night following a night battle during which sharp firing was renewed in the west concession of Tientsin.

Japanese sources said the firing was especially sharp in the direction of the Nankai Girls' School.

Neither the Nankai school nor the Keen school which is connected with it, was damaged.

Christmas Club
Members to Have
Sum $592,490,000

NEW YORK, Nov. 12.—(P)—Twelve million Americans, members of Christmas clubs throughout the country, will have $592,490,000 to spend during the holiday season this year.

The $592,490,000 total announced by Rawl, Christmas club president, said withdrawals had reduced this year's total by six per cent as compared with 1930, but that substantial increases had been made in many communities.

The largest distribution of Christmas club checks will be in New York state where the total is $120,000,000. Pennsylvania will distribute $66,000,000 and Illinois $48,000,000.

He borrows $10 from this relative, $10 from that one, pawns something, mortgages something else and turns all the cash he can raise over to the "company."

The "company" tells him to report for work in a few days, and fades from the picture. The appointed day comes, the unemployed man finds an empty office.

It's an old racket, N. J. Kenner, manager of the Better Business Bureau of New York said today, but it is worked over and over in many different lines, and the more the unemployment, the greater the number of racketeers to work it.

And there are many other ways of preying upon the unemployed.

TEXAS BAPTISTS ADOPT RESOLUTION PROMOTE HARMONY

FUTURE REPRESENTATION TO BE DENIED GROUPS
NOT IN SYMPATHY

BY R. W. BARRY
Associated Press Staff Writer
WACO, Nov. 12.—(P)—A constitutional amendment adopted by the Baptist general convention of Texas paved the way to deny in the future representation to organizations not in harmony with the general body.

The amendment, unanimously adopted, would make it emphatic, by defining in specific terms, that all messengers entitled to seats in the convention were expected to be in harmonious cooperation with the main objects of the convention.

Interpreting the amendment, Dr. L. R. Scarborough, president of the convention, said it "completely disavows the few small groups of irregular organizations which appropriate the Baptist name and claim membership, but are in open opposition to the convention's main objects and adopted measures and policies."

"Such churches in the future will be denied representation in the convention," he said.

Dr. E. O. Sellers of New Orleans spoke of the work of the Baptist Bible institute.

Dr. Albert Venting reported for the Southern Baptist Theological seminary of Fort Worth.

C. Q. Chandler of Wichita, Kas., a visitor from the Northern Baptist convention, extended greetings from his brethren.

He made an appeal for legislation which would make it possible for crippled children to obtain proper treatment. He has helped get such legislation in 38 states.

Dr. H. W. Tribble spoke on the work of the Southern Baptist Theological seminary at Louisville.

Dr. George W. Truett of Dallas, chairman of the board of trustees of Southern Baptist Theological seminary at Fort Worth, reviewed its work.

BROTHER KILLED SISTER'S SUITOR DUE TO WRONGS

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 12.—(P)—The recital of a wrong done his daughter by Francis A. Donaldson, 3rd, is Horace Allen's defense of his son, Edward E. B. Allen, who faces trial on a charge of first degree murder for shooting Donaldson last Monday night.

The recital was made late yesterday at the office of John R. K. Scott, Allen's attorney, while Edward Allen was held without bail in the Norristown jail.

The narration depicted Donaldson as a bully who had beaten both Edward and his younger brother for their remonstrances.

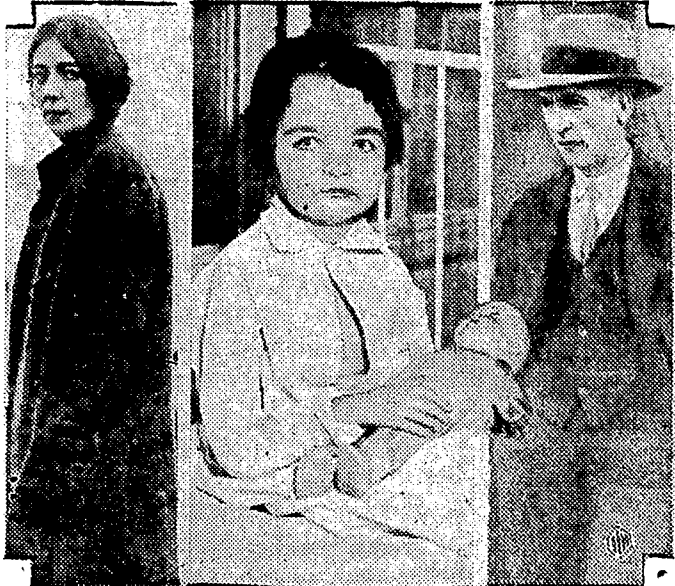

His attention was to his sister, Miss Rose E. W. Allen, and painted Edward himself as a "gentle and delicate boy" aroused to desperation by Donaldson's blows and the knowledge of a wrong done his sister.

An aunt of the dead youth, Mrs. Wharton L. Donaldson, made the only comment:

"Any attempt to besmirch the character of this dead boy will reflect only on those who make it. But if anyone wishes to libel his daughter or sister, it is no concern of ours."

Edward L. Miller, 105 West First Avenue, received word of his father's death early Thursday morning and left immediately for Greenville. He is employed in the office of Armour and Company.

Child Held Captive 4 Years

Thirteen-year-old Edith Riley (center), of Washington, D. C., after she was rescued from the dark cellar in her father's house, which had been her "home" for the last four years. A raid by U. S. Marshals on the Riley home led to the discovery of the pitifully emaciated and scarred child. Her father, Harry Riley (left), and her stepmother, Mrs. Elsie Riley (right), are being held in connection with the strange case.

TWO BARGE WORKERS KILLED BY BLAST ON BARGE LOADING OIL

LAKE CHARLES, La., Nov. 12.—(P)—Two barge workers were killed in a blast on the Clooney Construction company barge at the Sun Oil company loading rack at Hackberry last night, just after the barge and another of the same company had finished loading 2871 barrels of crude oil for delivery at the Vacuum tank farm at Lake Charles.

The bodies of the two men, James Bruce, 31, of Gosport, a suburb of Lake Charles, and Joe Donovan, 55, of Moss Lake, had not been recovered from Kelso bayou today.

The blast came after Captain Richard, of the Clooney tug Dart, which was pulling the two barges, had given an electric light bulb to Bruce to hand to Donovan, who was on the last barge from the tug, on his way to install the globe.

The fire quickly spread, destroying two barges of W. T. Burton, containing 1200 barrels of oil of the Yount-Lee company. The oil aboard the Calcasieu barge belonged to the Calcasieu oil company.

The derelict of the Yount-Lee company's State No. 33 was burned. Immediately after the blast, all nearby wells were shut in.

The fire area was nearly 75 acres and Kelso bayou. The oil in a second barge from the tug, a steel barge, was still burning today.

Two Electrocuted By Contact With High Power Wire

GLADEWATER, Nov. 12.—(P)—Two men were electrocuted today when they came in contact with a high tension wire in a water well near Campbell Switch.

The victims were identified as Benton Brithard, 26, and Harold Brooks, 27. Brooks is survived by a widow and baby.

MUCH GROUND EXPECTED TO BE COVERED BY GRANDI AND HOOVER IN CONVERSATIONS

WASHINGTON, Nov. 12.—(P)—Every page in the book of international problems in which Italian-American cooperation might offer solutions will be turned next week by Foreign Minister Grandi of Italy and President Hoover.

Like the talks between President Hoover and Premier Laval of France, however, the world's economic situation and the bearing which international relations have upon it will be constantly in the foreground.

There will be a considerable difference between the status of the forthcoming conversations and those which closed a few days ago when the French premier returned home. Both Mr. Hoover and Premier Laval had to consider the influence of a congress and the parliament, realizing that any concrete step growing out of the conversations would necessarily require legislative approval.

For President Hoover, that problem still exists. The Italian statesman, however, will carry the full backing of Premier Mussolini.

Bright Spots In Business Found At Many Points

(By The Associated Press)
NEW YORK—Business mortalities this week were the least since the week of Sept. 18. Broadstreet figured bankruptcies at 471 against 536 last week and 494 in the comparable week a year ago.

Further evidence of the revival in the textile industry is given in a survey by Standard Statistics Company which shows textile fabrics have moved in fairly active volume this year.

Activity at current levels is expected to continue.

Fashion Park Associates will call 3,400 employees, idle for a month, back to work within a few days.

Christmas trade will receive stimulus from the payment during the week of Nov. 30 of $592,490,000 to 12,000,000 members of banking Christmas clubs.

The hide market, in the past a harbinger of general prosperity, has been its low point, says Armand Schmoll, Jr., vice-president of the New York Hide Exchange, who believes agitating and industry are slowly returning to normal. High prices struck bottom a few weeks ago at 6 1/2 cents a pound, equaling the low quotations of 1921. Since then, prices have climbed back to around eight cents a pound.

Schenectady, N. Y.—An order for 10 fast freight locomotives for the Lehigh Valley Railroad will provide employment for 1,800 men at the local plant of American Locomotive Company.

Manchester, England—Chinese boycott of Japanese goods has meant large orders for the English textile industry. It has produced orders for 40,000 mill workers. Nearly 500,000 Chinese workers are now working full time.

TAMMANY FOR GARNER

WASHINGTON, Nov. 12.—(P)—The nomination of Representative Garner of Texas as the democratic candidate for speaker became a virtual certainty today with word that the Tammany delegation would give the Texan its solid support.

Garner has made a collection of cartoons of her husband during the 36 years he has been in congress and placed most of them in what Garner calls a "Hall of Horrors" at their Uvalde home.

AUTUMN TURNS INTO WINTER OVER PARTS OF UNITED STATES

SNOW AND SEVERE COLD IN NORTHWEST; WINDS AND FOG STOP AIRLINERS

CHICAGO, Nov. 12.—(P)—Autumn got down to the business today of giving many widely separated sections of the nation tastes of bitter weather.

Snow, falling in an area from Montana to Arizona, left Kalamazoo, Mich., under a seven-inch blanket.

Cold winds drove temperatures downward throughout the district of the Rockies. It was 15 below in Pike's peak with a 40-mile gale.

High winds and muggy atmosphere kept airplanes close to port in the midwest. Not a plane arrived or left the Chicago municipal airport yesterday. Two planes, Chicago-bound from St. Louis, took shelter at Springfield, Ill. Their passengers concluded their journey by train.

An airplane fell to earth near Friendship, Wis. The pilot, Roger Davy, 25, Oconomowoc, Wis., was killed. Poor visibility was believed responsible for the death of Harry Thompson, 73, who walked in front of a speeding suburban Chicago train.

Weather observers said fog and rain would continue until tomorrow night.

In Utah and southern Idaho, the snow stopped late yesterday. No more was in prospect. The southwest was cool, with rain in Santa Fe, N. M., and snow in Gallup, N. M.

NEGRO GIVEN DEATH PENALTY AT GRAHAM ON THREE CHARGES

GRAHAM, Nov. 12.—(P)—The death penalty was given to Richard Brown negro, today by a district court jury which convicted him on charges of murder, criminal attack and robbery with firearms.

The jury found he was one of the two negroes who accosted A. N. Norduff of Fort Worth and his fiancée at Wichita Falls the night of Sept. 9.

Norduff and his fiancée had parked their automobile in the residence district. The negroes came upon them from the rear. Norduff attempted to drive away but was shot and wounded fatally.

The negroes then took his fiancée to a nearby vacant lot, criminally attacked her and robbed her of a diamond engagement ring.

Richard Brown, accused of being the other negro involved in the case, was convicted recently on similar charges and sentenced to death.

Signed statements were made by both negroes concerning the alleged offenses. The purportedly admitted they had gone to the residence district with the intention of robbing couples.

Garner Enjoys Laugh at Himself

WASHINGTON, Nov. 12.—(P)—Representative Garner of Texas appreciates a laugh at himself.

He presented Clifford Barryman, cartoonist for the Washington Evening Star, with a ten-gallon Texas sombrero today in appreciation of original caricatures Barryman had given Mr. and Mrs. Garner depicting the Texas Democratic leader in the hat of a Southwestern cow hand.

Mrs. Garner has made a collection of cartoons of her husband during the 36 years he has been in congress and placed most of them in what Garner calls a "Hall of Horrors" at their Uvalde home.

FIVE TEXANS MET VIOLENT DEATHS ARMISTICE DAY

(By The Associated Press)
Armistice day brought violent death to five Texans.

Three persons died from gunshot wounds. Two others were killed by automobiles.

The dead: Norma Joyce Weddington, 2, of Kilgore; Grover C. Super, 47, of Houston; B. R. Hinchman, 49, of Brenham; J. C. Hale, 60, of Stanford; and J. M. Vance, 60, of Lisbon.

Editors Suppress 'Depression' From Pages of Papers

LOS ANGELES, Nov. 12.—(P)—America's publishers of newspapers today to find their favorite word, "depression," had been routed by the stiff arm of suppression. As far as some of the 150 editors attending the American Newspaper Publishers association convention are concerned, the word doesn't exist any more in reference to business.

They decided it was a high hat word intended to substitute for the words "hard times" and "panic," now considered too harsh for any ordinary use.

Five publishers of newspapers in the east, west, south and mid-west, who led the move resulting in a decision to forget the word in referring to economic conditions, expressed confidence in the nation's return to normalcy.

MINISTERS URGED RETURN TO POSITIVE ATTITUDE OF FAITH

NORTHWEST TEXAS CONFERENCE MEMBERSHIP HEARD
BISHOP BOAZ THURSDAY

BY ROBERT WEAR
Associated Press Staff Writer
VERNON, Nov. 12.—(P)—Bishop Hiram A. Boaz of Houston in opening the Northwest Texas conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, today adjured ministers to return to a positive attitude of faith and beware of assuming a questioning attitude in the present crisis.

A similar plea for an attitude of confidence in the face of spiritual doubt and financial depression characterized the address of Dr. R. N. Allen of Nashville, Tenn., chairman of the board of church extension.

Dean E. D. Jennings of Southern Methodist University reported on scholastic and financial progress of the institution in the last 15 years, saying that unfavorable publicity the university had received was not a true index to disreputations which would be ironed out by a "prayerful attitude" and a return to a "more truly religious atmosphere."

Bishop Boaz urged preachers to emulate the passion of St. Paul for service and avoid "passion for place and position."

Pre-convention preliminaries were disposed of yesterday.

Dr. King Vivion, president of the conference, presided.

Body of Woman Buried In Lime Found by Boys

WOODSTOCK, Ill., Nov. 12.—(P)—Sealed in oil cloth and packed in quicklime, the body of a woman was found yesterday, buried in a shallow grave six miles south-east of Woodstock. Two boys walking along a road noticed a disturbed section of ground and made the discovery.

Belief was expressed by Sheriff Lester Edinger that the woman was a victim of gangsters and that vengeance or fear she would reveal some gangster secret to the authorities was the motive behind her death. No evidence of wounds was found on the skeleton.

Authorities regarded identification of the victim as impossible except by persons who "new her intimately."

ANOTHER NIGHT OF FALLING STARS EXPECTED TO OCCUR EARLY PART OF NEXT WEEK

BY HOWARD W. BLAKESLEE
(Associated Press Science Editor)
CAMBRIDGE, Mass., Nov. 12.—(P)—Another "night of the falling stars," a visitation of the Leonid meteors, is due on one of the first four nights of next week.

The latest prohibitive record of these Leonid meteors has been found chiseled in stone in ruins of the ancient Mayan civilization in Yucatan.

This story has it that the "halos" fell from heaven with the Lord of the Dead, "Tzontemucque." The stone bearing this record is believed to have been set up about 600 years before the arrival of the Spaniards in Mexico.

The Mexicans had a similar tradition. It describes the fine threads of fire which meteors leave as they dash across the heavens.

The Leonids appear in the east after midnight. For the past three years a few have been seen each night in November, and astronomers predict another great flood of meteors in the sky.

For more than 1,000 years these Leonids have turned night into a beautiful but awful sort of day for several hours at a time. Chinese records speak of them in 764. In 1142 in Russia a shower of Leonids was mistaken for the end of the world. In nearly 1,000 years they have been seen. They have been taken more than once as the sign of earth's final hour. In 1532 a Leonid play was described in the phrase, "The new like threads from the east."

In 1833 J. Fisher, meteor expert of the Harvard Observatory, says the time when the Leonids appear is this month, November 13, and more likely to be after midnight, Monday, Nov. 14. The public again is requested to report to astronomers who, during the period of observation, the period of observation, the directions and courses in the sky, description of very brilliant meteors.

ANTI-TRUST LAWS VIOLATION CHARGED AGAINST MAJORS

FIFTEEN BIG OIL COMPANIES
FACE OUSTER SUITS
FILED BY ALLRED

AUSTIN, Nov. 12.—(P)—Ouster suits against 15 oil companies were filed in Travis county district court today by James V. Allred, Texas attorney general. The petition charged violation of the Anti-Trust laws.

Companies named were the Standard Oil Company of New Jersey, the Standard Oil Company of New York, the Standard Oil Company of California, the Shell Union Oil Corporation, Humble Oil and Refining Company, the Texas Company, Gulf Refining Company, Pasco Petroleum Company, Continental Oil Company, Sinclair Refining Company, Magnolia Petroleum Company, Simms Oil Company, Shell Petroleum Corporation, Cities Service Oil Company, Texas Pacific Coal and Oil Company, Texas Petroleum Marketers Association, American Petroleum Institute.

Allred charged in the suit that "a nationwide conspiracy to control and dominate the business of marketing gasoline and petroleum products and to destroy independent filling station operators" existed.

The fifteen companies and two associations were charged with having been engaged since November 20, 1929, in a systematic program of acquiring all independent filling stations in Texas; fixing the price of gasoline and petroleum products; fixing the price of filling station equipment; lessening and eliminating competition among themselves and generally dominating the marketing branch of the oil industry.

This practice was carried out under the guise of complying with a so-called "code of practices" and with the purported approval of the federal trade commission, Allred charged.

Forfeiture of Charter Asked. The suit asked forfeiture of the charters of the domestic corporations named as defendants, cancellation of the permits of foreign corporations operating in Texas, liens upon the property of all defendants, and fines under the Anti-Trust laws from November 20, 1929, to the date of the suit, approximately 700 days.

The attorney general said the defendants each were liable for a minimum fine of $35,000, a maximum fine of $1,050,000 or a total minimum of $505,000 and a total maximum of $17,850,000.

Investigation of the oil companies has been carried on by the attorney general for several months. In August a special session of the legislature appropriated an additional $300,000 to the attorney general to continue the inquiry.

Numerous secret courts of inquiry were held throughout the state and several trips made to investigate the books of companies in Texas.

Document Voluminous. The petition contained 138 legal pages. It was signed by Attorney General Allred and Assistant Attorneys General McKenzie, Bishop and Lewis.

All except two of the defendants are charged to operate a general oil business.

The petition charged the Standard Oil Company of New Jersey, "in order to avoid jurisdiction of state courts and to escape tax liabilities resorted to the scheme of taking over a subsidiary, the Humble Oil and Refining Company."

METHODIST MEET IN FT. WORTH IN ANNUAL SESSION

CENTRAL TEXAS CONFER- ENCE UNDER WAY—IN- TERESTING PROGRAM

FORT WORTH, Nov. 12.—(P)—The sixty-sixth annual session of the Central Texas conference, Methodist Episcopal Church, South, began today. Dr. W. G. Cram, Nashville, Tenn., secretary of the general board of missions, will be the principal speaker tonight on a program sponsored by the conference board of missions.

A number of pre-conference board and committee sessions were held yesterday in addition to an advance meeting of the bishop's cabinet. The chief meetings were those of the conference hospital board, the board of Christian education and the board of missions.

The annual program of the board of Christian education was presented last night with Dr. E. C. Webb, Austin, president of the Wesleyan Union Bible chair, as the speaker.

Other speakers included Rev. G. A. Schueter, Fort Worth, executive secretary of the conference, and Rev. H. W. Williams, Nashville, a member of the general board.

BELIEVED CHICAGO AND CLEVELAND TO GET CONVENTIONS

WASHINGTON, Nov. 12.—(P)—The Republican and Democratic national conventions, which went further west in 1928, seem destined for Cleveland and Chicago next June.

The former, where Calvin Coolidge was nominated in 1924, is likely to be the Republican choice. Sites will be selected at meetings of the national committees here in December and January.

San Francisco is still in the running and is expected to make a strong bid particularly for the Democratic gathering. It is favored by several prominent Democratic leaders, but the general opinion at the capital now is that a centrally located site is preferable this year.

Chicago is busy at work on both Democratic and Republican chieftains. Other cities also are making bids and none can be ruled out until the committees meet. Other bidders include Philadelphia, Atlantic City, St. Louis, Detroit and Boston.

No convention has been held in the east since John W. Davis' nomination ended the tumultuous Democratic gathering of 1924. President Hoover was nominated in 1928 at Kansas City, while the designation of Al Smith as Democratic standard bearer was made at Houston.

Kerens Cotton Is Believed Nearly All Out for Year

KERENS, Nov. 12.—(Sp)—Cotton receipts at the three yards here were 17,206 bales up to Wednesday night. Gin men and cotton yard men predict not more than 300 bales if that many more will be received here, as most farmers are cutting stalks preparing land for oats.

Some oats are up to a nice stand where land could be broken, others are waiting for rains.

Kerens last year received over 18,000 bales of cotton. According to reports from farmers, next year's cotton crop will be reduced more than ever in east Navarro.

Government Reports Cottonseed Crushed

WASHINGTON, Nov. 12.—(P)—Cottonseed crushed during the three-month period, Aug. 1 to Oct. 31, was reported today by the census bureau to have totaled 1,272,504 tons, compared with 1,660,952 tons in the corresponding period a year ago and cottonseed on hand at mills Oct. 31 was 1,192,692 tons, compared with 1,087,389 tons a year ago.

Cottonseed products manufactured in the three-month period and on hand Oct. 31:

Crude oil produced, 422,925,729 pounds, compared with 504,669,071, and on hand 115,978,927 pounds, compared with 11,631,523.

LACK OF MOISTURE CAUSING CONCERN TO TRUCK GROWERS

AUSTIN, Nov. 12.—(P)—Lack of moisture is causing grave concern to growers of truck crops, a report issued by the federal crop reporting service said today.

With the exception of small areas which were favored by local showers, rainfall in the winter truck crop growing areas has been negligible. Added to this condition the temperatures have been several degrees above normal.

Little planting was reported in non-irrigated areas and unless ample precipitation is received during November, acreages of winter vegetables will fall far below expectations.

Most of the early sown spinach was lost during October due to insects, hot weather and weeds. Nearly all spinach now growing is in the winter garden area. This area is dependent for irrigation on the Nueces river, now virtually dry, and fear was expressed by government reporters that unless it rained heavily soon this acreage would be lost.

Cabbage crop condition was reported fair; broccoli was making satisfactory progress; cauliflower was reported in good condition.

Condition of all crops, excepting broccoli and eggplant, declined during October.
Hot and dry weather caused deterioration of the snap bean crop during October. The weather also has had a bad effect on the fall tomato crop. Production was estimated at 89 per cent of last year. Soem disease was reported, especially in the Lower Rio Grande Valley.

GENERAL, HALE AT 71; RECALLS PEACE ORDER ON 13TH ANNIVERSARY

By MARGUERITE YOUNG

WASHINGTON, Nov. 11.—(AP)—

Thirteen years ago today Gen. John J. Pershing dispatched 29 words from Chaumont, France, to Washington. They read:

"Headquarters American Expeditionary Force, November 11 (morning). In accordance with the terms of the Armistice hostilities on the front of the American Armies were suspended at 11 o'clock, morning."

Behind this terse communique lay the most thrilling moment in the life of more than 2,000,000 soldiers experienced during the World war—that of realizing the job was done, the climax of the nations' greatest military conflict was reached and victory was won.

In multi today General Pershing diffidently recalls his own experiences on that first Armistice day.

Only his close friends have heard how he himself picked up a telephone in a French chateau, on that November daybreak, and personally relayed the command that hushed the gun-thunder of half a million soldiers.

As Gen. John J. Pershing, retired, this still stalwart commander sits at a desk in a spacious room near that in which he made his plans for his greatest adventure.

His manners and his speech are as meticulous as his dress. His civilian attire is of military trimness. At 71 he looks as if he finished the war.

His powerful figure has more flesh than when he came back, but is still of athletic mould. His somewhat pale face accents the sparkle of his blue-grey eye, and the strong square lines of his jaw.

Turning Back the Years

No doubt the general's backward glance will rest, at some time today, on that morning at Chaumont, in 1918.

On the night of November 10, he was informed he would "receive word" the next day.

He waited in the chateau that was his headquarters, 150 miles from Paris and within easy communication with the two American armies that were driving the Germans back as though they were unhinged bars of a big triangle.

At 6 o'clock the next morning General Pershing was called by his liaison officer, who had brought the word from Marshal Foch's headquarters.

The Armistice had been signed an hour earlier, the last article children and Mrs. J. P. South were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Alton Harrison in Dallas Sunday.

Still the Soldier

Gen. John J. Pershing, America's world war leader, recalls on the 13th anniversary of the signing of the armistice that it was that agreement to end hostilities that gave him his most thrilling moment of the war.

first in order to facilitate cessation of battle.

General Pershing walked to a telephone and made two calls, giving the momentous command to cease firing at 11 a. m. to each American Army headquarters.

Thence the order traveled by telephone to corps headquarters, down the military stations to his headquarters, to the advancing doughboys.

His Biggest Moment

Once when French journalists asked General Pershing to name the most poignant moment during the war, he reflected, then replied:

"It was when the Armistice was signed. It was then we knew that victory was ours and that our dead had not died in vain."

3 RULES big help to BOWELS

What a joy to have the bowels move like clockwork, every day! It's easy, if you mind these simple rules of a famous old doctor:

1. Drink a big tumblerful of water before breakfast, and several times a day.
2. Get plenty of outdoor exercise without unduly fatiguing yourself.
3. Try for a bowel movement at exactly the same hour every day.

Everyone's bowels need help at times, but the thing to use is Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin. You'll get a thorough cleaning-out, and it won't leave your insides weak and watery. This family doctor's prescription is just fresh laxative herbs, pure pepsin, and other helpful ingredients that couldn't hurt a child. But how it wakes up those lazy bowels! How good you feel with your system rid of all that poisonous waste matter.

Of Interest to the Churches And Civic Organizations Of Navarro and Surrounding Counties

From now until Christmas the Corsicana Semi-Weekly Morning Light will give fifty yearly subscriptions to any ladies church or civic organization in exchange for a 500 pound bale of good cotton delivered at the Light office.

After securing the fifty yearly subscriptions to the Light the ladies can sell the subscriptions for $1.00 each, making a total of $50.00 in money for their various activities.

This offer is for any church or organization, and the subscriptions can apply on both new and renewal subscriptions to the Light.

Ladies, here is a fine opportunity of making some easy money for your worthy church and civic activities.

There will be no limit to this offer as all you will have to do is just bring your bale of cotton to the Light office, and then get busy.

Remember that next year is political year and everybody wants to keep up with local, state and national politics in addition to other news.

THE TYRANNY OF YOUTH.

The overestimate of youth is a phase of weakness. The disposition to lament its passing is an evidence that one has not found the secret of a happy life.

Youth is the time of enthusiasms, bright hopes and hot desires. The tendency of the immature mind is to consider these things the best part of existence.

If we are fortunate enough to acquire any wisdom as we grow older we find that contentment does not lodge in these things, but is a prize to be gained by the normal use of our will, our intelligence and our skill in self-mastery.

The sentiment which crops out so often in poetry and in novels that the joy of life's morning is all that's worth while is closely akin to cynicism.

The impression you get from the average novel is that the interesting part of life is over when the young people are married and done for.

As a matter of fact, the best part of life ought to be after 50.

We begin life as young animals. We ought to wind it up as great spirits. And age is better than youth, precisely as the life of the spirit is better than the life of the flesh; precisely as an intelligent human being ought to be happier than an unthinking animal.

The average American family is dominated by the children.

This is bad for them and for everybody else. It makes them intolerant, selfish and disagreeable. And it reduces their parents to a state of peonage.

The truth that every parent ought to know is that if a child's youth is to be a permanent asset in his life it must be made a period of discipline rather than of self-indulgence.

No one wants to go back to the heartless, callous and unsympathetic system of treating children. They should have their full portion of love, appreciation and understanding. But at the same time they should be made to realize that life is not a matter of having a good time.

It is a matter of self-mastery, of honor and of heroism. Such qualities alone bring permanent happiness. And such qualities do not grow in a soil of continual indulgence.

JUDGE AND JURY.

Jurors, theoretically, are without bias, personal interest and pre-conceived opinion and act on the evidence alone without coercion or duress. Jury-tampering is a serious offense. Even jury-shadowing is a crime, a certain millionaire oil man found to his sorrow.

Judges have said with fines and jail sentences what they think of dishonest jurors and jury-fixers, but a jurist has yet to express his opinion of the judge who brow-beats and coerces a jury.

There are some judges, who in their zeal for prohibition enforcement, forget they are of the judiciary and not of the administrative branch of the government and discard the "gown and wig" for the mantle of a prosecutor by bullying lies into returning verdicts ated from the bench.

JUST FOLKS

DRUNKARDS

"Drunk" said the monarch with a smile.
 "Drunk as a fool on rum and beer."
 Behold a man at last destroyed.
 By what his palate has enjoyed.
 And the gay clown in motley said:
 "Wine is not all that turns the head."
 Not all the brains that cease to think
 Are seldom by the fumes of drink.

"Fool," asked the King, "wouldst thou tell me then
 That you would sneer at sober men?"
 "Yes, sire," replied the jester wise,
 "Sneer at them, pity and despise
 When they in fortune's favoring hour
 Grow arrogantly drunk on power.
 They, too, at last themselves destroy
 By the one thing they most enjoy."

"Money and power are deadly stuff;
 Few men know when they've had enough.
 By them the noblest minds are
 lulled;
 The voice of conscience strangely
 lulled.
 The finer instincts put to rout.
 Yes, sire, beyond the slightest doubt
 The thirst for power makes even kings
 Do many savage, senseless things."

SPORT FOR HEALTH'S SAKE.

It is generally acknowledged, states the United States Public Health Service, that a certain amount of physical exercise is advisable if one wishes to enjoy good health. In prehistoric times, man got all the exercise that his body needed in obtaining food and defending himself from savage beasts. Later, men obtained sufficient exercise from following their agricultural and pastoral pursuits. With the advance in civilization, living conditions became more complex and occupations become more specialized, and as a result there are an increasing number of people who get very little exercise in the performance of their daily tasks.

As a result of this change in conditions of living, certain muscles and organs of the body have become weak and flabby from little use, and artificial exercise is required to keep muscles and organs in normal condition.

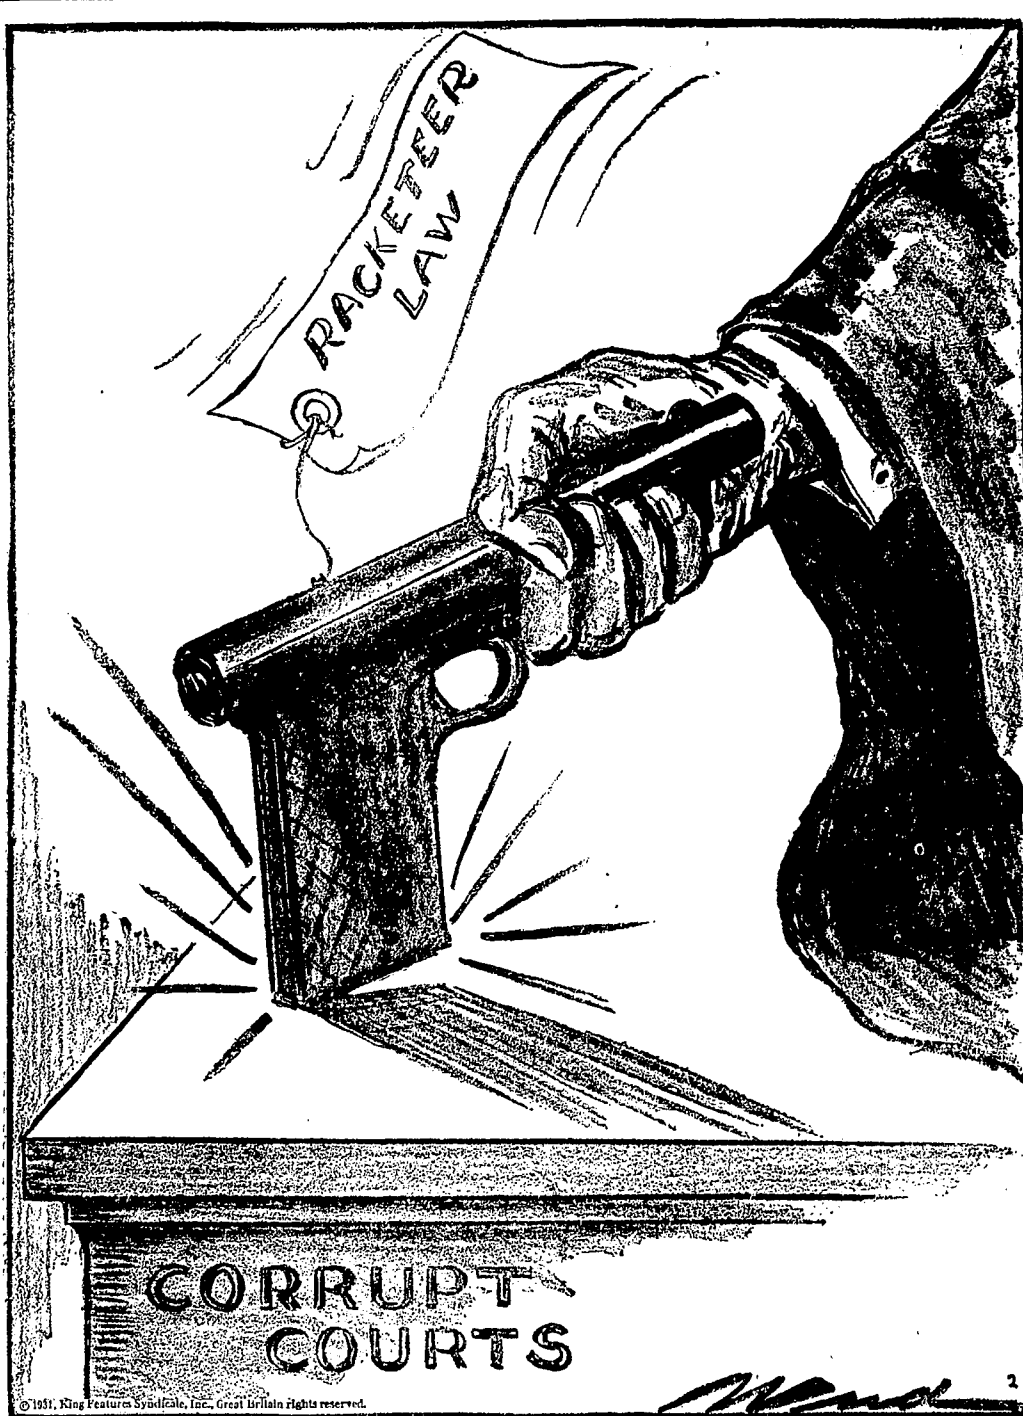

The value of exercise for the maintenance of health is generally recognized. The increase in circulation resulting from exercise benefits all parts of the body. Every movement which we make causes the destruction of certain body cells. Nature replaces all such normal waste of tissues and usually adds a little more than was destroyed. This process of replacement is speeded up by exercise. That is why blacksmiths' arms and runners' legs are so well developed. However, if too much exercise is taken, there results a greater destruction of tissue than the body can replace, and in such case the body is harmed instead of benefited.

People who do heavy manual labor need no artificial exercise, but those with sedentary occupations should set aside a regular time of the day for exercise just as they do for meals. Ordinarily exercise should not be taken less than three hours after a meal, and a meal should not usually be taken less than one hour after exercise. If one is about to take a systematic course of exercise or to engage in any sport, it is best, before doing so, to have a physical examination made by a competent physician to ascertain whether the organs of the body are in a healthy condition. It is a good thing to have such an examination made at least once a year.

Exercises are most beneficial when taken in the open air, because the open air contains a larger percentage of oxygen than does the air indoors. But, if for some reason or other, such as inclement or cold weather, exercise cannot be taken outdoors, then exercises indoors in well ventilated gymnasiums or rooms are next to be preferred. However, protecting it are supposed to prevent.

Where is the distinction between a powerful politician telling a jury it shall not convict or defendant bribing a jury for an acquittal or a judge letting it be publicly known that juries which fail to act in accordance with his whims and opinions will be publicly pilloried and shorn of part of their jury fee? If there is any, it is in degree only.

The Gavel

ever, even in cold weather open air exercises can be taken if proper precautions are observed to prevent chilling.

Walking is the simplest of the outdoor exercises. It can be taken by practically everybody, and if supervised by a physician it may even benefit those who suffer with some disease of the vital organs. When going out for a walk, one should wear appropriate clothing—in warm weather, light, loosely-fitting clothes; in cold weather, warmer woolen clothing. Shoes and stockings should be well fitted so as not to cramp the feet. The heels of the shoes should be low. For the average person in good health, a walk of from three to five miles at a rate of about three miles per hour is sufficient for a day's exercise. In walking one should try to keep the body erect, with the head up, the abdomen in, the shoulders back, and the chest fairly high; and in striding, the feet should be kept parallel with the toes pointing straight forward. The arms should swing freely from the shoulders. After completing the walk, it is best to take a hot shower followed by a brief cold one lasting about thirty seconds, rub the skin vigorously with a coarse towel until dry, and then change to fresh clothing.

Horseback riding is a good form of exercise, and is especially beneficial for gastro-intestinal disorders. The rhythmic vibration which the gait of the horse imparts to the rider's body seems to be of benefit to some of the internal organs. It is one of the favorite forms of exercise with many eminent persons.

Maybe some Far Eastern politician would be glad to know, at this time, that a president here once got himself re-elected on the platform, "He kept us out of war."

The town cynic feels now that he has made a mistake. When he put a frame around the first dollar he ever earned, he glued the bill to the background.

Author H. G. Wells would like to run the world for awhile. As things are, the world would doubtless be agreeable, if he can find the handle.

We see where Estelle Taylor's latest release has gone into training for some important boxing he has in mind for next spring.

UNIMPAIRED RESOURCES

To look upon stock market quotations as measures of national wealth is to go looking for trouble. Security prices may shrink without there being a comparable loss of national wealth.

The wealth of a country lies in its consuming capacity for goods and services, and in the means it has provided, or which nature has furnished it, to produce what is needed.

This does not mean that the United States is no poorer as a result of two years of falling security prices. It is poorer in purchasing power but none of the other elements of national wealth have been lost.

The present situation is not so much a question of lost national wealth but of non-production or non-use of national wealth. National wealth is not smaller but economic waste in the form of unemployment of labor and capital is greater.

National resources are unimpaired. If living standards have been lowered by necessity, they will return to their old high level as soon as business gets back on its feet. Consumer demands, dammed up by lost confidence, must eventually break loose. When they do the unemployment situation both for capital and labor will be on the way to self-solution.

It was a mistake ever to have accepted inflated stock market prices as a measure of national wealth. It is just as serious a mistake to look upon deflated values in that light.

"Let's get this straight," said the great bridge authority to his new partner. "Now if you hold six diamonds to the king is your signal a cough or a low whistle?"

The village cynic says the history of a free people is that they found their liberties on a Declaration of Independence and from then on chip away at the foundation.

It seems Gandhi has a secretary in attendance at the London meeting. We had had a picture of the Mahatma jotting notes on his wrist with a bit of chalk.

One outfit you don't hear much, if anything, about is the second largest still ever confiscated in the country.

Perhaps the most colossal flop of the past couple of years has been Satan as an employment agency.

WHAT THE BIRD SAW.

Aviation is furnishing new jobs for the government map-makers. Once the map-makers had a two-dimensional job; now they have to take in a third. They are mixing picture making with their craft.

Artists of the past century produced their so-called "bird's eye" views. There was not a man alive in those days who knew how the world looked to a bird in flight. But now this knowledge is of vital importance to the map-makers.

The aviator sees the country beneath spread out like a beautifully tinted map, much more elaborate in detail than it would be possible to achieve by the most careful work of the cartographer. But he needs a set of landmarks, identifications upon the ground.

The experts of the government coast and geodetic survey are working upon such maps. They have not begun too soon. Commercial aviation is at hand and, like the map-makers, the entire country needs to change its point of view. In the immediate future the bird's eye view is to be important to the entire commercial interests of the country.

The go-getter's test: Bringing order out of chaos.

Safe Pleasant Way To Lose Fat

How would you like to lose 15 pounds of fat in a month and at the same time increase your energy and improve your health? How would you like to lose a load of unhealthy fat that you don't need and don't want and at the same time feel better than you have for years?

How would you like to lose your double chin and your too prominent hips and at the same time make your skin so clean and clear that it will compel admiration? How would you like to get your weight down to normal and at the same time develop that urge for activity that makes work a pleasure and also gain in ambition and keenness of mind?

Get on the scales today and see how much you weigh—then get an 85 cent bottle of Kruschen Salts which will last you for 4 weeks. Take one half teaspoonful in a glass of hot water before breakfast every morning—cut out pastry and fatty meats—go light on potatoes, butter, cream and sugar—and when you have finished the contents of this first bottle weigh yourself again.

Now you will know the pleasant way to lose unsightly fat and you'll also know that the 6 salts of Kruschen have presented you with glorious health.

LOCAL POSTOFFICE WILL OBSERVE HALF HOLIDAY SATURDAYS

Beginning Saturday, Nov. 14, all windows in the Corsicana postoffice will be closed at 1 o'clock Saturday afternoons, according to an announcement made Tuesday by P. Mayer, Corsicana postmaster.

According to Mr. Mayer, a law was passed recently by congress providing for a half holiday on Saturday for all postal employees, and it is mandatory that they be excused after four hours' work on those days, or that they be given time off during one of the succeeding five working days for all time in excess of four hours work utilized on Saturday.

Under the present arrangement all windows at the Corsicana postoffice are kept open all day Saturday, making it necessary to allow time off to these employees during the following week, reducing the efficiency of the office on the following days. In an attempt to best serve postal patrons, cards were distributed to about 800 citizens in the business district, and the vote was 10 to 1 in favor of the Saturday afternoon closing, Mr. Mayer reported.

The changed window schedule will not effect the dispatch of outgoing or the working of incoming mail, which will be boxed as usual. Effective Saturday the windows will be closed Saturday afternoon, with the exception of the Saturday immediately following Christmas day, Dec. 26.

NEW SUBSCRIPTION PLAN FOR LIGHT IS ANNOUNCED TODAY

Since the announcement that the Semi-Weekly Morning Light would give a year's subscription for ten pounds of ginned cotton, there has been a constant pouring in of cotton at the office, the subscribers coming in with a smile and saying, "Well, here it is, and walking out with a receipt for one year to their popular and favorite newspaper."

Many who are paying cash for the paper as heretofore, as they all claim when subscribing for the Light, they cannot do without it.

Next year being a political year makes them all the more anxious for the paper.

To encourage the women of the churches of the community to make some ready money for the work of their organization, the Semi-Weekly Light will give 50 yearly subscriptions to any church or society for a 500 pound bale of ginned cotton delivered at the Light office in Corsicana.

After securing the 50 yearly subscriptions to the Light, the women can sell these subscriptions for $1.00 each, making $50 in money for their good work.

In this manner much money can be made and this offer will last until Christmas, and is open to any church or civic organization, and can be applied on both new and renewal subscriptions.

Dew Deers to Play Fairfield Friday

TEAGUE, Nov. 10.—The Dew Deers basketball quintet, in spite of a former defeat at the hands of the same team, are going to tackle the Fairfield Eagles again on Friday afternoon. The game will be played at Fairfield. The Deers have been doing some strenuous practice and are in readiness for a get-at tussle.

Saturday Trades Day Brings Great Crowd to Wortham

WORTHAM, Nov. 10.—(Spl.)—Trades Day in Wortham Saturday brought back scenes of "oil field days," by the large crowds that mingled here from early morning to a late hour. The usual "Trades Day" premiums and entertainments did not seem to be chief attractions. Parking spaces on the streets was filled and crowded, besides the sidewalks, crowded with people.

By the large number of traders and shoppers it seemed that "good times" were around this corner. One large dry goods store merchant was forced to close his doors three times during the day as all standing room in the store was taken, the large force of extra clerks waited on these in the store, and when the people were through buying, the doors were open for their exit, and to let others in. The day was an unusual spectacle of prosperity at any time.

GIRLS' CLUB REORGANIZED

G. L. WASHBURN, PIONEER RESIDENT OF KERENS, DIES

KERENS, Nov. 10.—(Spl.)—Funeral services for G. L. Washburn, age 81, pioneer resident of the Kerens community, were held Tuesday afternoon at 3:30 at the home of his granddaughter, Mr. and Mrs. F. E. McCown, and were conducted by Rev. Joe N. Everhart, Presbyterian minister. Interment was in Jimerson cemetery, two and one-half miles southwest of Kerens, with Masons in charge of the ceremony at the grave.

Mr. Washburn died at the family home here Monday night at 8:30 following an illness of several days. Surviving are four children, C. E. Washburn, J. A. Washburn, F. B. Washburn, all of Kerens, and Mrs. E. J. Gilbert, Fairfield.

The deceased took an active part in community affairs and always worked for the advancement of not only his community but the county as well. He was a member of the Masonic lodge here, member of the Commandery at Corsicana and of Hella Temple at Dallas.

ACCOMPLISHMENTS OF RED CROSS IN TEXAS PAST YEAR

SOMETHING OF THE WORK DONE IN VARIOUS PARTS OF THE STATE

The Fiftieth Anniversary Roll Call of the American Red Cross was opened in Corsicana Armistice Day and will continue until Thanksgiving Day, with an object of 2500 memberships from the entire county. Johnny Garitty is Roll Call Chairman again this year and he has a full staff of assistants in Corsicana and branch chairmen in the various communities of the county.

The following resume of Red Cross activities in Texas the past year will show what the money goes for, one-half of each dollar being retained in this county for the Red Cross work and the other half going to the American Red Cross headquarters for the purpose of building up the emergency fund that is so often called into use throughout the nation and other countries during each year.

Membership—The Roll Call in Texas during the fiscal year, ending June 30, 1931, resulted in 108,839 senior members and 94,687 junior members for the American Red Cross.

Disasters in Texas—The major disaster relief was to drought sufferers in eighty-six counties in Texas, during the fall and winter. $4,854 families were aided by means of disbursing orders for food, clothing, fuel, feed, medicine and miscellaneous items, through the tireless efforts of approximately 2,300 volunteer workers. In addition to the disbursing orders, thirty-five carloads of donated food supplies were distributed. 2,296 pounds of yeast were distributed to families where pellagra was prevalent. 73 families received fall garden seed, and 5,929 received fall pasture seed. In addition to the disbursing orders, thirty-five carloads of donated food supplies were distributed. 2,296 pounds of yeast were distributed to families where pellagra was prevalent. 73 families received fall garden seed, and 5,929 received fall pasture seed.

West Texas was visited by torrential rains during the early part of October, which filled streams to flood heights and wrought considerable damage in and near the town of Brady. The first flood occurred on Oct. 6th, and a week later a second took place. The damage caused by these floods was estimated at much in excess of $350,000. The mayor of Brady designated the Red Cross as the official relief agency and called upon the citizenship for clothing, food, and help in every way possible. The donations from the public of Texas amounted to a relief fund of $4,675.97. More than 250 persons were given emergency relief, while permanent or rehabilitation assistance was rendered to sixty-five families in the form of food, household goods, tools, poultry, clothing, building material and medical aid.

On October 6th a tornado swept through Houston county in the vicinity of Datexo, doing considerable damage to pine timber and wrecking the few houses in its way. Twenty-one persons were injured. Fifty-eight homes, five barns, and four other buildings were destroyed; and ten buildings were damaged. A few families lost their household furnishings and poultry. The Houston County Red Cross Chapter handled the relief operation, giving emergency relief to twenty-one persons in the form of food, clothing, and medical aid. Eleven families received rehabilitation aid, consisting of food, household furnishings, and seed. The total amount expended in the relief operation was in excess of $1000; part of this was contributed by the National Red Cross.

A cloud burst occurred in parts of Hall, Briscoe and Motley counties on the night of June 8th. Because most of the land is hilly, much of the earth was washed away from the hillsides, down to "hard pan." Hall fell in certain parts of the area. Three lives were lost, one house was completely washed away, and five families suffered furniture and clothing losses. The outstanding loss of this disaster was the growing crops, principally cotton and various kinds of feed. 68,000 acres of cultivated land were within the devastated area. Adjacent communities donated cotton and feed seed valued at $1,675,000 and the national organization contributed the necessary cash to rehabilitate the victims (200 families).

Service to War Veterans and their Families—173 Red Cross chapters in the state assisted a monthly average of 20,802 Service and Ex-service men and their families, in straightening out home problems, filing and expediting their claims for government benefits, obtaining hospitalization, and helping men and their families to rehabilitate themselves.

A National Red Cross liaison representative at the U. S. Veterans Bureau Regional Offices, Dallas and San Antonio, performed the essential service of assisting chapters in expediting veterans' claims.

Service to Regular Army and Navy—National Red Cross workers at Fort Sam Houston and at Fort Bliss aided numbers of regular soldiers at these camps by helping to solve home problems, and in other ways. This work is carried on under the Congressional Charters which establishes that the Red Cross shall be the medium of communication between the people of the nation and their regular armed forces.

Nursing Service—At the end of the fiscal year there were 802 Texas nurses enrolled in the Red Cross Nursing Service, ready to respond to calls from the Army, Navy or the Red Cross Disaster Service.

Public Health Nursing Service—In Texas Red Cross health nurses made 30,397 visits other than class room, and inspected 19,070 children in school during the year.

Home Hygiene and Care of the Sick—Classes conducted by Red Cross nurses and accredited instructors, taught the fundamental principles of health and of simple procedures in home care of the sick, to 552 girls, boys, and adults during the year.

First Aid and Life Saving—787 persons in the state were issued First Aid Certificates for completing courses in First Aid to the Injured. These men and women are proficient in helping the injured. Seventeen chapters conducted First Aid programs.

Life Saving classes in the state enrolled 2,430 swimmers this year. Altogether there are 10,961 Red Cross Life Savers in the state. Life Saving programs are conducted by fifty chapters.

American Junior Red Cross—Boys and girls in junior and high schools, private, public and parochial, of the state, numbering 95,667, are enrolled as members of the Junior Red Cross. Their motto is "I Serve," and engage in volunteer activities to bring comforts to veterans in hospitals, to orphans, the aged, the crippled, and to their own fellows, if need exists. They conduct correspondence and exchange portfolios with the school children of forty-six chapters in the state.

Civilian Family Relief—An increasing activity of the Red Cross family social work, resulted in specially trained workers aiding a monthly average of 4,644 families in the state last year in solving health and personal problems, in communities where no other family organization existed, to which the families could appeal for help.

Volunteer Services—Volunteer women, a large and active army of the state, produced 2,634 garments for local, national and international use; 1,315 Christmas bags for our soldiers and sailors on foreign duty; and eighty-eight layettes.

Chapters—There are 230 Red Cross chapters in Texas.

NEW EDUCATIONAL ERA IS PREDICTED BY DR. RAY WILBUR

SAN ANTONIO, Nov. 12.—(P)—Dr. Ray Lyman Wilbur, secretary of the interior, believes a new educational era in which the American child will be the production of a revolutionized system of training is near at hand.

Addressing the twenty-third annual convention of the Texas Congress of Mothers and Parent-Teachers last night, Dr. Wilbur predicted the near future would see an education system which would include recreational and health factors in addition to reading and writing and arithmetic in child training.

President Hoover's White House conference on child health and protection in November, 1930, had the prime purpose of establishing a program which would unify these three systems into one, more far reaching than any program for children ever conceived in America," he said.

CATTLEMAN DEAD AND WIFE IS HELD ON MURDER CHARGE

HOUSTON, Nov. 12.—(P)—A 47-year-old cattleman was dead and his wife was under a murder charge today as a result of an altercation in their home here.

Grover C. Super, 47, member of a well-known South Texas cattle country family, died late yesterday from a gunshot wound. His wife said Super had been drinking and abusing her.

Mrs. M. E. Shaw, a neighbor, said Mrs. Super called her, saying, "Come over here, he is beating me."

"I walked to the back porch where they were standing," Mrs. Shaw said. "and Mrs. Super said she had almost broken my jaw."

"I started to leave and heard them fighting again. I heard Mrs. Super say, 'you better get ready to meet your God.' He laughed and sneered at me, and then there was a shot."

"Mr. Super said, 'well, I guess you finished it this time.'"

Bonnie Shaw, Mrs. Super's 16-year-old son, said he saw the couple "fighting" and Mrs. Super told him, "stand there and watch it all."

GYPSY CLAIMS HE PURCHASED BRIDE FROM HER FATHER

MISSING CHILD FOUND IN CAMP OF NOMADS; KID-
NAPING IS CHARGED

CINCINNATI, O., Nov. 12.—(P)—The domain of Ephraim Marks, 25-year-old Gypsy "Prince" was bounded by the four walls of a prison cell today while federal authorities tried to decide whether his 14-year-old bride had been kidnapped or purchased according to tribal custom.

Frank Ranco of Brooklyn, N. Y., father of the girl bride, Ruby, charged she had been kidnapped from a Brooklyn theater three months ago and forced to marry Marks. The Gypsies replied Marks paid the father $2,250 for the girl according to Gypsy law. Ranco, they charged, was working a "kidnap racket."

Ruby, who also said she was kidnapped, was found in the camp of "Queen" Amelia Marks, 48, yesterday by deputy sheriffs led by Ranco, who said he had followed the Gypsy band through Missouri, Illinois, Indiana and Michigan. Mrs. Marks, her son and his bride were taken to jail.

George Marks, brother of the prisoner, added "it is the Gypsy law that a man must pay for his wife" and asserted he was a witness to the purchase of Ruby. Pete Sterio, another tribesman, told officers Ranco "worked the same trick" with another daughter on a brother of Sterio's at Ottawa, Canada, several years ago.

HONGKONG, Nov. 12.—(P)—The Canadian liner Empress of Asia reported today that the British minesweeper Petersfield, which ran aground this morning on Tung-sing island, 450 miles north of here, was a total loss but all hands had been saved. The Empress of Asia and the steamer Derfflinger were the first to reach the scene. Several other British warships previously were ordered to the minesweeper's assistance.

Additional Meat
Preparation And Canning Meetings

Another of a series of meat preparation and canning demonstrations started at 1 o'clock Thursday afternoon at Blooming Grove, according to information received from Calvin Pigg, county agent. Several animals are to be slaughtered during the afternoon, and a canning demonstration will be staged Friday.

The first of the series was held at Pursley Monday and Tuesday, and others are scheduled in various sections of the county.

Kerens Schools Are Observing National Education Week

KERENS, Nov. 12.—(Spl.)—Kerens public schools are observing Education Week by having assembly in the high school auditorium each morning and a program on some phases of education.

J. J. Hendricks, superintendent of schools, spoke to the group on Monday on the "Economic Side of Education." Henry Ross, teacher of vocational agriculture, spoke on the topic of "What Education Has Done for Rural America."

An armistice day program was put on for Nov. 11 for the purpose of peace instruction for the children of the Kerens public schools.

GARNER BELIEVES PLANS ADEQUATE TO MEET SITUATION

DEMOCRATIC HOUSE LEADER, PROBABLY NEXT SPEAKER, REACHES WASHINGTON

WASHINGTON, Nov. 10. (P)—Representative Garner of Texas said today the democrats would have a full legislative program adequate to meet the situation ready to present to the coming congress.

The democratic house chieftain made the statement in a conference with newspapermen shortly after his arrival today from his home at Uvalde.

He declined to disclose the nature of the program and added: "I have absolutely nothing to say on public questions at this time."

Asked whether the democrats would organize the house, Garner said that matter still is in the lap of the gods.

He added that until the house meets Dec. 7 it could not determine which party would have the most votes in the floor.

"I do believe," Garner said, "that we democrats are in a better position to organize than the republicans. Our organization is better equipped and better organized for harmony that exists in the republican organization."

Garner said he felt that while congress was in recess the president was charged with the responsibility of operating the government and that he did not feel he should comment on public questions until congress convenes.

The Texan expressed the opinion one party should not attempt to overthrow control after the house is organized.

He predicted a democrat would be elected from the Fourteenth Texas district to succeed the late Representative Harry M. Wurzbach, the line republican from Texas, but said he did not know whether the new member could be elected in time to participate in organization.

Mrs. Garner Noncommittal
WASHINGTON, Nov. 10. (P)—The wife of Representative Garner of Texas, democratic speaker-elect, was asked today how she would like being Mrs. Speaker. Laughingly, she replied: "I am not building a chicken house until I find out what the eggs hatch."

Mrs. Garner returned to Washington today with her husband after spending the summer at Uvalde, their home.

Wortham Little Theatre Presents Its First Play

WORTHAM, Nov. 10. (Spl.)—The "Little Theatre Show House" which has been fitted up for opened Friday night with "Death Takes a Holiday," as the first of a series of plays to be presented by local talent. Bob Poinsett is director and manager of the "play house."

A series of four plays are to be presented this month. Next week's show will be "Trail of the Lonesome Pine."

This new Wortham attraction begins with flattering prospects and as it is the only show the town has bids fair to be a success, judging by the attendance of the initial show.

BiStone Federated Clubs to Meet Mexia Saturday, Nov. 21

WORTHAM, Nov. 11. (Spl.)—Mrs. J. T. Cox of Groesbeck, president of the Bi-Stone Federated clubs, which organization is composed of clubs of Freestone and Limestone counties, has appointed Mrs. E. W. Sneed of Wortham, chairman of the press and publicity for Freestone county, and Mrs. C. L. Tatum of Mexia, chairman of press and publicity for Limestone county.

The fall meeting of the Bi-Stone Federation, which was postponed a few weeks ago, will be held in Mexia in an all-day session Saturday, Nov. 21. Mrs. J. T. Cox of Groesbeck, president of the organization, will preside at this meeting. Mrs. C. L. Tatum of Mexia is chairman of the program committee for this meeting.

RESTFUL SLEEP for FRETFUL, FEVERISH CHILD

—With Castoria's regulation

When your child tosses and cries out in his sleep, it means he is not comfortable. Very often the trouble is that poisonous waste matter is not being carried off as it should be. Bowels need help—mild, gentle help—but effective. Just the right Castoria gives. Castoria is a pure vegetable preparation made specially for children's ailments. It contains no harsh, harmful drugs, no narcotics. Don't let your child's rest—and your own—be interrupted. A prompt dose of Castoria will urge stubborn little bowels to act. Then relaxed comfort and restful sleep! Genuine Castoria always has the name:

Mob-Dogged Man Encounters A Riot In Old Jerusalem

Battle-scarred Veteran of Gospel Pioneering Thwarted In Homesick Ambition --- Yet His Major Purpose Was Furthered by Plot Against Life

BY WILLIAM T. ELLIS.
Here is a story to thrill the reader—or to make him weep. It concerns an old man, who in the midst of a tempestuous life, gave home-study for the city, and for fellowship with comrades dear to him. Then at the moment of the fulfillment of his desire, he was slandered, mobbed, nearly killed, arrested without cause and sent away from the city a prisoner.

It is the tragic tale of a hero—but a hero to the end. Study of Paul's experiences puts iron into thin blood, and strength into the weary muscles of his life-breath. The poet's prayer:

"Grant me the struggle, that my soul may grow."

Better tonic far than the Pollyannaism of professional optimists in a difficult day is the example of this man whose whole Christian experience was a succession of hardships. He dreamed high dreams and dared great deeds; and built a new empire with his tongue, in the midst of his trade of tent-making. Obstacles to him were but incentives and stepping-stones. He lived so completely for a great ideal and a great mission that he regarded life-and-death adventures as mere incidents in his work. His standard of values was spiritual; and so he was emancipated from physical fears. There have been many self-aware men in the world, but never one so completely Christ-absorbed. Living or dying was the same to him, so long as the Good News of the world's Saviour was proclaimed.

This man Paul was no cry-baby. Yet, as his face was turned toward Jerusalem, he wept as he parted from the Ephesian elders at Caesarea. Heart-blood seemed to drip from every word of his farewell: "What do ye, weeping and breaking my heart? For I am ready not to be bound only, but also to die for Jerusalem, the name of the Lord Jesus."

That was the sort of comrades Paul made in his ministry. Fellowship of this fashion is one of the most precious products of Christian service. Millions of persons never have had a friend who would weep for or with them. Strong and vital ties, which are life's greatest rewards, are unbreakable. They live on the surface of life, drifting with the days. They never enter into the fellowships that tap the depths of being.

This lesson bids us tarry to the rewards of Christian fellowship. For there is no "good society" on earth equal to that of the society of good people, bound by a common purpose and a common task. The most ideal groups of human beings I have ever met anywhere have been communities of foreign missionaries, with their fine and full of love.

Our misguided friends are often the foes of our highest welfare. On his way to Jerusalem, Paul's brethren tried to dissuade him from his mission. They were of the opinion that his mission would harm more come to him. They cared more for his comfort than for anything else. So they repented that great company of parents and friends who, without intentionally stand in the way of one's highest service. Wives who are forever entreating husbands "not to work too hard" and "stay at home tonight and rest."

Paul's mission was to go from difficult adventures; and all coddlers of their beloved, are to be classified with Paul's misguided friends who tried to restrain him from going up to Jerusalem. Love's calls to ease instead of to effort. In Paul's heart burned a fire which even the tears of friendship could not quench. He yearned for Jerusalem, and he saw clearly that Jerusalem he should go. To him duty was the highest expression of love. Grieving but unshaken, he passed through all the stages of his journey to the holy city: when the brethren welcomed him with joy; and heard with gratitude his report of the work he had been doing.

How Riots Rise in the East.
To conciliate Jewish sentiment, Paul became one of a group fulfilling a Temple vow. It was in vain. His watchful, suspicious enemies, the Jews from Asia, saw him walking along the streets of Jerusalem with a troop of Christians from Ephesus. It was easy enough to assume that Paul had taken this Gentile into the Temple. So the cry went up—I have heard it, quite as causeless as the cry of the same city. Men of Israel, help! At him! At him! The mob gathered and grew, and the black business was on.

Nobody can understand the too-frequent news of troubles in present-day Palestine who does not realize that this hysterical region still runs true to form; and that mob violence may break out at any hour as quickly, and as unreasonably, it did in the case of the Apostle Paul. Today it is the British troops that fill the role of the Roman soldiers in quelling riots and preserving the peace.

Reduced. But bloody. That the timely arrival of the Roman legionaries saved Paul from death. The riot had grown city-wide, most of the rioters not knowing what it was all about. In the vicious center of the mob the aged apostle was being beaten, kicked, trampled and spit upon. A few minutes more of mob freedom and his travels and troubles could have perished, like Stephen in the very citadel of the faith of his fathers.

Every class that studies this lesson should give careful consideration to the question of mobs and their treatment. This is a good time to form resolutions concerning one's own course in the case of possible mob action.

Soldiers rescued Paul in the nick of time. Before the war, far off in the desert shrine city of the Moslems. Nejed, Turkish troops saved me from a fanatical religious crowd, who resented the appearance of a Christian in their sacred city; so I can understand how Paul must have welcomed the sight of the Roman uniforms. The soldiers did not know what the trouble was all about—in fact, they thought that Paul was a famous Egyptian seditionist; but they did know that mob law was contrary to Roman law.

Their duty was the preservation of law and order. So their quick action foiled a mob murder, as they hustled the victim off to the castle adjoining the temple area.

The Master Passion.
Thirsty for blood, howling and cursing, the mob, enraged at having been cheated of its prey, followed the soldiers to the castle itself, crying, as they had cried on another memorable occasion at the same place, "Always with him!" Another sort of man than Paul would have been glad to cover in safety in the innermost part of the citadel. But he asked only permission to speak to the crowd. Would he hurl defiance and threats of vengeance at them?

Not he. His ruling passion was greater than his weakness and wounds, greater than any natural sense of retaliation. Thus, when he could be heard, he addressed them in Hebrew as "Fathers and brethren." These murderers who sought his blood, "Fathers and brethren?" No less. So vast and unconquerable was Paul's zeal for the life of his countrymen, and so inextinguishable his love, that he saluted them in the very words that he would have used to all abject synagogue congregations.

Not ill Aboard for Rome."
As was not unusual in the Apostle's experience, the sermon was interrupted by a riot. These bitter partisans could not hear of Good News for the Gentiles. So they stopped the sermon with their cries for the preacher's life.

So great was the commotion that the soldiers took Paul inside the castle. There was an orderly Roman hearing, and working His purposes out; and making the wrath of man to praise Him. He was using the machinery of Rome to effect His higher will. Beyond the present hearing, loomed in the distance the great opportunity of the gospel; just as beyond our present difficult days await undreamed-of opportunities for human welfare.

SEVEN SENTENCE SERMONS.

Earth hath no sorrow that heaven cannot cure.—Thomas Moore.
I find that there is in a corner of my heart a little plant called Reverence, which wants to be watered about once a week.—Gladstone.
I know not where His islands lift Their fringed palms in air; I only know I cannot drift Beyond His love and care.—John G. Whittier.

To be alive only to appetite, pleasure, pride, money making, and not to goodness and kindness, is to be dead.—Henry Thoreau.
Music, flowers, stars, God and eternal hopes, is to be all but dead.—Malthus D. Babcock.

As thy days so shall thy strength be.—Deut. 33:25.
Think truly, and thy thoughts Shall the world's famine feed; Speak truly and each word of thine Shall be a fruitful seed; Live truly, and thy life shall be A great and noble creed.—Horatius Bonar.

When you know, to know that you know, and when you do not know, to know that you do not know—that is true knowledge.—Confucius.

WARD BRIDGE ROAD DIRT AND DRAINAGE WORK IS ACCEPTED

Dirt and drainage structures on the Ward bridge lateral road in Consolidated road district No. 1, a distance of slightly more than seven miles, were formally accepted from the contractors, Fickerson and Schilling, of Waco, Tuesday morning, by the Navarro county commissioners' court. The dirt and drainage structures cost $15,200. The commissioners inspected the work Monday afternoon.

T. P. McLendon, president; J. N. Garitty, secretary; Z. J. Banks, Howell, and C. L. Tillman, Blomington, members of the board of managers of the P and S hospital, a county institution, met with the commissioners Tuesday morning and a round-table discussion of the financing and other problems of the hospital were considered. After the managers had stated reduction in salaries of employees of the hospital had been made, amounting to 275 per cent, the court passed an order authorizing the payment of the deficit for October of $500,000, brought out in the discussions that 60 per cent of the patients in this hospital are from the city of Corsicana while only $8,500,000 of the $25,000,000 valuations in the county are in Corsicana. It was stated some physicians carried pay patients to clinics and hospitals outside of Navarro county while the charity patients were sent to the local hospital.

At Monday's session of the commissioners' court J. M. Tullos, county auditor, was authorized to purchase $5000 bonds of Consolidated road district No. 1 for the permanent school fund. The commissioners also authorized the purchase of $15,000 of bonds of Consolidated road district No. 1, maturity of April 1, 1932, at right of first refusal, interest, delivered in Corsicana, the interest and sinking fund of the road and bridge funds.

Educators From Seven Counties Heard Speakers

GROESBECK, Nov. 10. (Spl.)—School principals and superintendents from seven counties met in Groesbeck at noon Saturday to hear E. M. Blackburn, chief supervisor of high schools of the state department of education, and Representative J. T. Cox. It was the monthly luncheon of the Schoolmaster's Club.

The next meeting will be the first Saturday in December, with Wilson Betts of Marlin acting as chairman of the meeting, meeting in Marlin. Mr. Blackburn discussed new conditions in high schools and offered suggestions for solving problems. Mr. Cox explained new school laws.

There are no officers of the club. The host city furnishes the presiding officer for the meeting.

The city officers said the negro was arrested at Third Avenue and Boston street, proceeding westward, at 2 a. m.

Justice Court.
Judge J. L. Cox rendered a verdict for the plaintiff in the case of M. Smith vs. Ed Choate, suit on notes, that was tried Tuesday.

One was arrested on a charge of alleged swindling with a worthless check by Constable C. P. Brooks.

A negro was arrested early Wednesday morning by city officers and was turned over to the Constable Brooks. The negro was hailed before Judge W. W. Clifton Wednesday morning on a charge of wearing men's clothing. She was wearing a man's hat and overalls and jumper.

When queried by the officers for wearing pants, the negro said she was going through the white section of town and she donned the man's apparel for protection. She said negro women were molested and white boys and men were prone to meddle with them, and throw rocks at them.

She said she did not know it was against the law to wear men's clothes, but did know it didn't look right.

Judge Clifton sent her to the county farm on a vagrancy plea of guilt.

Manchuria

Japanese troops in Manchuria to 16,000.
The government was making elaborate preparations today for an unusually strong presentation of its cause before the League council at Paris Monday. Three ambassadors will represent Japan at the meeting.
Charles G. Dawes, American ambassador at London, who has been instructed by the United States government to go to Paris for the meeting, is regarded here as friendly to Japan.

League Calls on China-Japan End War

GENEVA, Nov. 12.—(P)—Chairman Aristide Briand of the League of Nations Council today called for China and Japan to make every effort to prevent further military action in Manchuria and to give neutral observers sent to the territory by the council every facility for learning the truth of the situation.

This, the chairman said in a note published here today, is "extremely important," particularly in the vicinity of the Nonni bridge and Angrenchi.
He called attention to the engagements of the two countries under the council's resolution of September 30 and said "I also urge that the commanders of opposing forces receive strict orders to remain from initiating any fresh action."

Indications of a strong interest by the United States in the efforts to bring about peace in Manchuria had succeeded today in dispelling much of the gloom in which league quarters have been submerged for several days.
President Hoover's Armistice Day address, as far as it was reported here, led league officials to believe that the United States is wholeheartedly supporting the league plan for securing peace in the Far East.

Great satisfaction also was expressed over the news that Ambassador Charles G. Dawes had been named to present the United States at the League council meeting in Paris Monday. General Dawes has a high reputation here.
Reports which leaked out here regarding the tenor of the recent Washington note to Tokyo said the United States indicated it is ready to support "a firm international program" to bring about a settlement and this also contributed to the optimism.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 12.—(P)—Undersecretary Castle of the department said today a compromise plan to be brought forward at the League of Nations sessions in Paris next week was the basis for the American government's optimism over the Manchurian situation.
Although the secretary would not go into details, it was said in other official quarters the plan already had taken definite shape in communications between European and American statesmen and stood a good chance of acceptance by both the Japanese and Chinese governments.

Whether the plan involved sending a neutral commission to Manchuria was not disclosed.
Castle said nothing had occurred since yesterday to change the attitude of optimism expressed then by Secretary Stimson.

New A. and P. Store Opened Thursday On North Commerce St.

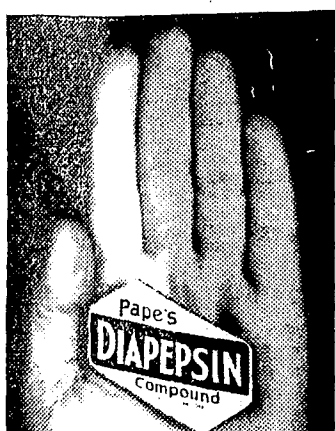

Doors of the Great Atlantic and Pacific Tea company's store No. 172 on North Commerce street between Fourth and Fifth avenues were formally opened to the public for the first time Thursday under the management of C. G. Spence.

The building was formerly occupied by the N. P. Garrett grocery and has been remodeled and renovated to meet the requirements of the new client. Standard fixtures in keeping with the style of the system have been installed. A complete stock of plain and fancy groceries deck the shelves.

The interior of the store appears spick and span with its new equipment and is spacious enough to accommodate a heavy volume of business. It is the third member of the chain now operating in Corsicana.

Barbecue and Bread Distributed Among Needy Families

A quantity of barbecue and bread, remaining unserved after the dinner at the airport Wednesday, was presented to the Salvation Army by officials of the Johnson-Wiggins Post No. 22 American Legion and distributed to needy families in Corsicana during the afternoon.

INDIGESTION

Here's good news for your stomach! A little, handy, pocket size of Pape's Diapensin. Eat what you want, and all you want, without one pang of indigestion. Just carry this harmless stomachulant. Take two or three tablets after each meal. Then enjoy serene digestion.
Pape's Diapensin Tablets are as pleasantly as candy. No sourness, no gas, no distress two hours after meals—no indigestion but hunger for the next meal. Don't get indigestion. Just carry Pape's Diapensin.

Ouster Suit

pany, in 1919, acquiring approximately 65 per cent of the stock. The Humble and Refining company, the petition alleged, has been assigned Texas and other sections of the South in which to operate for the benefit of the parent corporation and no organization of the Standard of New Jersey competes with the Humble in this territory.

Use Humble Company.
"Through the Humble the Standard of New Jersey has carried out conspiracies in restraint of trade and in violation of the anti-trust laws," Allred stated.

Under the same procedure, the Standard Oil company of New York City, the Magnolia Petroleum company, the petition alleged, W. S. Farish of Houston, president of the Humble, and E. R. Brown of Dallas, president of the Magnolia, are the subsidiaries on the boards of the parents companies, the petition states.

The Standard Oil company of California was alleged to have set up the Pasotex Petroleum company to operate in Texas. Its principal office is in San Francisco and Pasotex is a foreign corporation operating under a permit. Its Texas office is in El Paso. Likewise, the petition charged, the Shell Union Oil corporation set up the Shell Petroleum corporation. The latter's Texas headquarters is in Dallas.

Parent Corporations Involved.
The suit was brought against the parent corporations to subject their properties in this state to the payment of penalties provided for violation of anti-trust statutes, particularly to subject shares of certificates of stock which the parent corporations own in their Texas subsidiaries.

The Texas company, of which R. C. Holmes of New York is president, is a foreign corporation. The Continental Cities Service and Sinclair also are foreign corporations. The Gulf of Mexico Oil company, Texas Pacific Coal and Oil company and Texas Petroleum Marketers' association are domestic corporations.

Referring to the Texas Petroleum Marketers' association, the petition stated the association was organized to "promote and foster a co-operative spirit among producers, refiners, marketers and users of petroleum and its products." Allred charged it has "actively participated in carrying out agreements in restraint of trade."

A. P. I. Also Charged.
The American Petroleum Institute was charged with actively participating in agreements in restraint of trade. A session of the institute is now in session in Chicago.

The petition charged that in 1923 the defendant companies and others entered into a combination to create restrictions in the preparation for market and the marketing of petroleum and its products; to fix the retail prices of petroleum and its products and to monopolize the filling station equipment field.

Allred charged that as part of the original agreement and to hide the true motive a "code of practices for the marketing of refined petroleum products" was drafted and presented to the Federal Trade Commission for approval by the American Petroleum Institute. In July, 1929, the Federal Trade Commission attempted to approve the "code of ethics."

Allred held that approval was without the authority of law and had no effect. He charged the code "was nothing more than an agreement and conspiracy in restraint of trade."

Copy of Code.
A copy of the code of ethics and a form of approval issued by companies in acknowledging acceptance of the code was contained in the petition.

Allred charged the verbiage of the form of acceptance was such as would mislead and conceal the real motive of the participating companies.

Large sums of money were contributed by the oil companies to the American Petroleum Institute, the Texas Petroleum Marketers' association and the code committee, Allred charged.

A large portion of the petition was devoted to detailing alleged violations of the laws against restraint of trade and set out numerous alleged changes in marketing practices that had reduced competition.

A writ of attachment against the stock owned by the Standard of New Jersey, Standard of New York, Standard of California and the Shell in its subsidiary companies in Texas was filed with the suit.

Sterling Silent.
Governor R. S. Sterling would make no comment when inquired about the suit, but he had been filed. The governor is a former president of the Humble Oil & Refining Company and was head of that concern at the time the Standard of New Jersey acquired a controlling stock interest.

Several years ago, the Waters-Pierce Oil Company was fined heavily and ousted from Texas after conviction on charges of violating the anti-trust laws.

The case will be tried before Judge C. A. Wheeler.
The suit will be placed on the appearance docket at the January term of the 53rd district court and then will be set for trial.

Allred indicated he would push for an early trial of the case. It was believed likely the case would be set for trial early next year.

Allred left the city immediately after the suit was filed. He declined to announce his destination, saying he "would be out of town a few days."

Beaty Says Suits Mean Nothing

CHICAGO, Nov. 12.—(P)—Ouster suits brought against 15 oil companies and two petroleum associations by the petitioners, general officers of the American Petroleum Institute, one of the defendant associations, said today.

"They mean nothing but a hill of beans," declared Amos L. Beaty of New York, newly elected president.

Beaty said the suit might appear to be sensational but "it doesn't mean anything and will soon die out." He also asserted the practices which apparently had brought about the action were fully approved by the federal commission.

"If ouster suits should have been filed against any one, they should have been filed against the federal trade commission which has approved our marketing practices code," said E. B. Reeser of Tulsa, retiring president. "We have been not only baptized but confirmed by the trade commission."

Reeser added that whatever effect the ouster action might have on the practices code in Texas would have no bearing on the oil industry in other states.

Harry F. Sinclair, chairman of the board of the Sinclair Consolidated Oil Corporation, said, "knowing the situation in Texas and the actual trade situation in Texas we do not take the ouster suit seriously and we do not believe other oil companies will. It is not reasonable to believe that 15 oil companies would be engaged in violation of the anti-trust laws."

Donoghue Declines to Comment.
HOUSTON, Nov. 12.—(P)—Donoghue, vice president and general manager of the Texas Company, today declined to comment on the action of Attorney General James Allred in filing suit to enjoin the charter of the Texas and other companies to operate in this state.

W. S. Farish, president of the Humble Oil and Refining company, another defendant, was in Chicago attending a meeting of the American Petroleum Institute.

Baptists

the church today.
Dr. W. M. Craig of Dallas submitted a report on activities of the Woman's Missionary Union.

It revealed that Baptist women had given $1,233,359 for all purposes during the year, $795,452 having been applied to local work of the churches and $443,907 spent in missions, education and benevolences fostered by boards of the local churches.

Of the later amount, Buckner Orphan's Home of Dallas received $30,871 in cash and boxes valued at $44,648.

During the year 333 new societies were organized among women and young people bringing the total number of women's missionary societies in Texas to 1,732.

There were 548 young women's auxiliaries, 467 Royal Ambassador Bands and 922 Sunbeam Bands.

Turning from church benevolences, considered yesterday, the convention received reports from its universities, colleges and schools.

Dr. S. S. Groner, president of the College of Marshall, reported his institution had 50 more pupils this year than at the same time in 1930. He predicted the enrollment would exceed 400 this academic year.

The student body added a large frame gymnasium building to the school plant. Assets of the institution were estimated at $345,054.

R. M. Caveness, president of San Marcos Baptist Academy, said assets of his plant now totaled nearly $500,000. The bonded debt was $74,000. He announced that the youngest son of former President Calles of Mexico had recently enrolled there.

McKee No Delme.
J. L. Ward, president of Decatur college of Decatur, revealed the 33-year-old institution's history. He said it had been difficult to obtain improvements because of the college's policy of not making debts. He said his was the only educational institution of the convention adhering to the no-debt rule. He asked the convention to affirm the school adequate help to carry on its work, stating that there had been a 25 per cent increase in enrollment this year.

Dr. G. W. McDonald, president of Wayland College at Plainview, reported loss of the college's funds in a recent bank failure. In spite of this set-back, faculty members had agreed to carry on with whatever money was received from time to time, he said.

Yesterday's program was given over to consideration of the churches' benevolences—hospitals and orphanages—and an explanation of the Baptists' co-operative program wherein it is proposed to enlist all the churches in a campaign to raise a $6,500,000 budget.

Decatur, Wayland and Marshall are junior colleges.

Dr. J. D. Sanderfer, for 23 years president of Simmons University at Atlanta, gave an account of the affairs of that school. He said it had an endowment of between $600,000 and $700,000. He said salaries had been "turned back" in order for the income to balance expenditures.

On motion of the Rev. Sam Morris, pastor of the First Baptist church at Stamford, the convention memorialized President Hoover to set aside a day of "confession, prayer and fasting," in view of the world-wide economic situation.

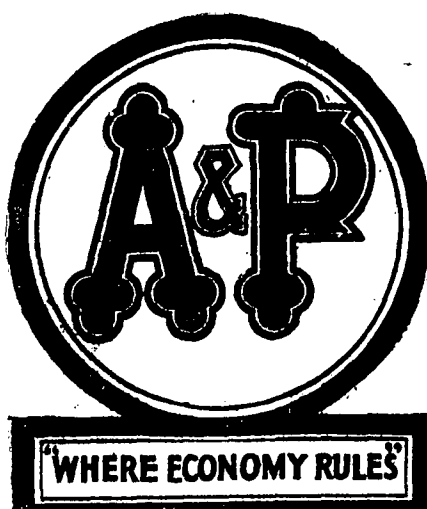

A constitutional amendment unanimously adopted directed that "the board and administration of each institution, owned and controlled by this convention, shall submit for review and approval, to a committee designated, each and every project or policy that involves an increase of liability on this convention."

"Any institution incurring liabilities by independent action shall be wholly responsible for such liabilities without in any way involving the convention."

Fine Boy Born to Mr. and Mrs. Estill
Tom Estill, pitcher on the San Antonio baseball team, and his wife, who have been in Corsicana the past two months, are rejoicing over the arrival of a fine baby boy, Thomas Milton Jr., who was born at their home, 107 North Twenty-first street, on Thursday, Nov. 5. The little man has two grandmothers, Mrs. Mattie Estill of St. Louis, Mo., and Mrs. M. Thomas of Purdon, who are equally as proud of his arrival as the fond parents. Congratulations are being extended Mr. and Mrs. Estill by their many friends here and elsewhere.

CARD OF THANKS.
Dear Friends: We take this method of trying to express our sincerest thanks to our friends and neighbors who were so kind to us in the losing of our home (which was destroyed by fire Sept. 8). We haven't words to express our appreciation. Only God in heaven knows how we appreciate each and every gift. May God's richest blessings be upon you all in our prayer.—Rev. J. J. Sykes and Family.

CHANGING MONEY VALUES

London in Bargain Time.
Miss Forbes is more familiar with London than most tourists, and never before, she says, has it been so exciting and so cheap. She gives some bargains to be had there now.

So, after all this talk of forming a national government to keep the pound sterling as the standard, the national government has let it go off the gold standard—and London as a result is a most exciting place to be in. The most exciting thing in the world is to see what a pity that there are so few Americans here! Their dollars would be very welcome at this time. In return, could you pick up the most astonishing bargains.

For, about the time that my friend and myself led in the economy campaign began—as I wrote. The government said "less expensive things" and every shop tried loyally to obey—prices tumbled. Where at costly shops got their cheaper goods in such a way as to annoy my very. Then the government said "sweater" and every adn buy British goods" and every shopper, tried loyally to do that. Result—Paris models went for a song. Everyone wanted British-made clothes—alas for the money we spent in Paris—Paris clothes are far, far cheaper than here.

And, now, with sales on everywhere, with prices cut on all sides—down comes the pound to anywhere (at the present writing) from $3.40 to $4. What a chance for those with dollars! For instance, the store—the most expensive department store in this city—has started a sale of coats of rich luxurious Canadian mink—at prices ranging from 100 to 400 pounds—normally $500 to $2000. My friend watched the exchange, cashed some money and added a most lovely mink coat to her trousses, for $350. The other suits and coats we ordered 10 days ago, will cost us probably, a third to a half as much less when we pay for them.

As for antiques—there are no

ALLRED YOUNGEST ATTORNEY GENERAL STATE'S HISTORY

AUSTIN, Nov. 12.—(P)—Attorney General James V. Allred of Texas, who today embarked on his long anticipated "trust-busting" campaign when he filed suit to cancel the charters and permits of 15 oil companies to operate in Texas, is the youngest person ever to occupy the office of attorney general.

Allred turned 33 years a few months ago.

Taking office January 1 after a whirlwind campaign in which he defeated Robert Lee Bobbitt of Laredo, incumbent, Allred started immediately to make it uncomfortable for persons and companies suspected of violating the anti-trust laws.

The suits filed today resulted from months of investigation and followed charges made before the Texas legislature that oil companies were operating under agreements in restraint of trade and in violation of the anti-trust laws.

Allred's investigation of the oil industry was facilitated materially when the legislature voted an appropriation of $30,000 and specifically instructed the attorney general to "get to the bottom of the whole thing."

Allred has filed several suits against other corporations serving the public, including public utilities and insurance companies.

The dynamic, black-headed legal advisor for the State has the appearance of being several years younger than he really is.

Allred has been frequently mentioned as a candidate for governor at the primary elections next year. Whether he will be a candidate depends largely on the attitude of Governor R. S. Sterling toward a second term.

Many of Allred's acquaintances, however, are predicting he will be a candidate for the gubernatorial chair regardless of the action of Governor Sterling.

Chinese military authorities informed the Japanese that General Chang Hsueh-Liang had given strict orders that the Chinese forces were not to fire upon the Japanese.

Both the Keen school and the Nankai school were evacuated yesterday because it was feared fighting would be renewed.

Anti-Japanese Feeling Strong
CHANGHAI, Nov. 12.—(P)—Japanese consuls at Chungking, Chengtu and Chengchow. China, told Mamoru Shigenitsu, Japan's minister to China, today that anti-Japanese sentiment has grown so strong in their areas it will be necessary to evacuate all Japanese citizens and close the consulates.

The three consuls came here at the request of the minister, to make a report on conditions in their territories. They said feeling against the Japanese was running high throughout the interior of the country.

Negro Pleads Guilty
To Robbery, Burglary
And Theft; Sentenced

Lester Sparks, negro, entered pleas of guilty in the Thirteenth judicial district court Thursday morning to indictments for alleged robbery, burglary and theft before District Judge Hawkins Scarborough and was sentenced to two years in the penitentiary in each case. The three cases will run concurrently.

Sparks was arrested in connection with the alleged placing of Joe Sparks, negro, "on the spot" several weeks ago in East Corsicana when Joe Sparks was severely beaten. He also was indicted in connection with the alleged burglarizing of Joe Sparks' cafe prior to the attack.

Southwestern university, delivered the opening sermon last night.

Preliminary conferences held yesterday included a meeting of presiding elders with Bishop Boaz.

A session of the McMurry college trustees, meeting of the board of Christian education, and a conference of committees on examination of preachers not admitted to full connection.

S. W. Jay of Abilene was named president of the McMurry college board to succeed W. J. Fulwiler of Abilene. Other officers selected were: H. O. Wooten, first vice president; Henry James, second vice president; and J. W. Couch, secretary. All were of Abilene.

Rev. Cal C. Wright of Snyder was elected secretary of the conference.

Rev. R. A. Stewart, presiding elder of the Vernon district, who has been appointed secretary of the bishops' cabinet, nominated for cabinet members various board and conference officials. The roll of supernumeraries was called and the following answered: J. C. Storer, C. S. Cameron, R. E. L. Stuts, and M. L. Moody.

From the Plainview district the names of R. B. Freeman and F. R. Pickens were presented for supernumerary relation because of ill health.

C. B. Breedlove, lay leader of the Stamford district, read the report of the committee on benevolence.

The following schedule of district meetings of stewards was recommended: Stamford Dec. 2, Abilene Dec. 3, Sweetwater Dec. 4, Vernon Dec. 7, Clarendon Dec. 8, Perryton Dec. 9, Lubbock Dec. 9, Amarillo Dec. 10, and Plainview Dec. 11.

The following dates were selected for kingdom extension institutes: Vernon Jan. 5, Clarendon Jan. 6, Perryton Jan. 7, Amarillo Jan. 8, Plainview Jan. 11, Lubbock Jan. 12, Abilene Jan. 14, Sweetwater Jan. 13, Stamford Jan. 15.

At Grand Friday

"Dugan of the Badlands," the new Monogram Western, featuring Bill Cody and 12-year-old Andy Shuford, is a rare treat for western fans, young and old alike.

Realizing the fact that there has been a dearth in the motion picture field the past couple of years as far as pictures appealing to the younger element are concerned, Monogram have established the team of "Bill and Andy" to star in a series of eight action dramas, each one to be built of action, comedy, heart interest and appeal never previously equalled in western features.

Hardly any western fan need be introduced to Bill Cody, for he has been before the camera for many years as a featured cowboy star for Universal and he rates high as a screen entertainer. Little Andy Shuford already has quite a few pictures to his credit and those of you who have seen him in Syndicate Pictures' "A Rider of the Plains" will undoubtedly look forward to seeing any future release which is graced by Andy's presence, for this member of the team of "Bill and Andy" is going to create a tremendous following among the "kid" fans.

Directed by Robert N. Bradbury, who also wrote the story, "Dugan of the Badlands" promises to be an outstanding western. It will be shown at the Grand Theatre for two days, beginning Friday. It'll be fun for everybody, so don't miss it.

Kilgore Fire Is Checked by Blasts
After Water Fails

KILGORE, Nov. 12.—(P)—The Kilgore fire department's big Armistice Day problem was to combat a stubborn fire without water.

A blaze at the J. T. Florence home was threatening nearby residences and the Kilgore hospital—when the water supply failed.

Fire Marshal J. E. Blaine studied a moment. About him citizens were wondering "how'n blazes" the fire could be checked.

Blaine dispatched a messenger to Blackie DeLong, oil well fire fighter. Within a few minutes DeLong had touched off two explosive charges, checking the flames.

It was revealed later an Armistice Day celebrator had been in collision with one of the city's fire plugs and all the water in storage had escaped.

TWENTY MILLIONTH FORD WILL REMAIN OVERNIGHT HERE

An overnight stop has been arranged in Corsicana for the "Twenty-Millionth Ford" car and its entourage on Monday, Nov. 17, according to information received Thursday by F. L. Calkins, Corsicana Ford dealer.

The car will leave Dallas next Monday, and, after making brief stops in Ferris, Palmer and Ennis, will arrive in Corsicana and remain overnight here. It is accompanied by a party of 27 men, including high company officials, and by a fleet of 16 de luxe models of Ford products.

Assembled in the presence of Henry and Edsel Ford at the Rouge plant on April 14, the car has been on a tour of the various agencies, after first being presented to the first Ford model produced in 1933. After it has completed the trip it will return to Greenfield Village as a part of the Ford museum at that place.

The car will be on display in the show rooms of R. L. Calkins during the evening, and invitations are being extended to all Ford owners and the general motoring public to inspect the vehicle which marks an important point in Henry Ford's manufacturing career, and is in striking contrast to the first model produced by Mr. Ford.

Rain Badly Needed
In East Navarro As Land Too Dry Plow

KERENS, Nov. 12.—(Sp)—Rains are badly needed in this part of the county. Some people living east of Kerens are hauling drinking water and taking their stock to neighbors' tanks for water. A great deal of farm land can not be broken until rains set in.

Some winter gardens are doing nicely but rain is needed on lawns and farm land. Most cotton stalks have been cut and farmers are ready for fall plowing as soon as rains commence.

DAYLIGHT ROBBERY.

DALLAS, Nov. 12.—(P)—A. C. Smith, drug store proprietor, was robbed of $300 at noon today by a man who leaped on the running board of his car when he stopped at a street light in the business district. The man thrust a pistol in Smith's face and forced him to drive into the residence district where he escaped.

Smith had been to the bank to draw the money a few minutes before the robbery.
